EDMONTON MUST FOLLOW CALGARY'S EXAMPLE OF DIRECT LEGISLATION.

Following the example of all progressive cities, the Calgary city council is making arrangements for the application of the initiative, referendum and recall in the municipal affairs of that city.

In the Calgary case there is no half-way measure proposed. The initiative is to be on a basis of 8 per cent. of the vote, the referendum on 10 and the recall on 25 per cent. The council has adopted the measure and it is now up to the electors for ratification, which it will undoubtedly receive.

This Calgary action is one which Edmonton will have to follow in the very near future if it is to progress municipally. The present system is archaic and unworkable. The mayor, according to the charter, has power to suspend any or all of the 1200 employees of the city, and may make ducks and drakes of the whole municipal system, whether the commissioners consent to the suspensions or not, and whether the council agrees with him or not. But the electors have no method by which they may reach the mayor during his term of office in time to stop him if he undertakes to run amuck in civic affairs and disorganize the entire staff. Neither can the electors reach the city council, no matter what sort of a ring they may choose to form or what manner of legislation they may choose to put over on the electors who have given them power for two long years. A council which chooses to form itself into a ring may appoint "committees with power to act," which may meet behind closed doors, and for secret reasons, of the motive of which the public may be absolutely ignorant, may carry out almost any kind of travesty with the city's finances or the city's constructive plans. Without the referendum, for instance, the "committee with power to act" may adopt a curtailment plan which cuts out works necessary to the health and convenience of a very large number of residents and may carry out works which have no other immediate usefulness than to boost the price of real estate in favored subdivisions. However brazen these alterations of the programme adopted by the public may be, the electors have absolutely no veto power, and they have no means of reaching the aldermen.

The referendum and recall places it in the hands of the electors to stop any such shinnigan, and it makes the aldermen and the mayor subject to the direct will of the electors on every other day the same as on election day. The initiative goes one step further by placing in the hands of the electors the right to make laws whether the council is willing or not.

If the members of the council are earnestly seeking to carry out the desires of the electors who placed them in office, the measures do not interfere with them. The law against horse stealing is interesting only to the horse thief. Others are not concerned as they do not intend to break the law and it is, therefore, as though it did not exist. Just so the council which is opposed to the initiative, the referendum and the recall can not reasonably expect the electors to consider that their opposition is impersonal. No council actuated by absolutely honest and loyal motives can urge any reasonable objection to the initiative, the referendum and the recall. The sooner the system is adopted in Edmonton the better, even though it has no other use than to banish mistrust.

SYMPATHY WITH ATHABASCA AND CONFIDENCE IN HER BRAVERY.

Everyone will sympathize with Athabasca in her situation by which the main part of the thriving metropolis of the north was wiped out by fire; but no one will expect the destruction of the business houses to put an end to business in that locality.

Athabasca holds a strategic position which is certain to make of her a big city some day. The geography cannot be changed by fire and the resources are everlasting. The conditions which first called Athabasca into being are all present today, and the day of the realization of Athabasca's dream of greatness is closer. Almost every city of consequence—with the exception of Edmonton—has had its fire and many of them have been completely wiped out before they struck their stride. Seattle, Vancouver, Chicago, even London, England, date their birth from fires which swept the townships bare. The pluck which took men into the wilderness ahead of steel to build the first Athabasca will build another in place of the one wiped out, and the new one will be better built with more substantial and time-defying structures, with proper protection against fire and an eye to beauty and permanence.

Athabasca has every sympathy in her loss, and sister cities of Alberta stand ready to see that her citizens do not suffer physical deprivation therefrom. But Athabasca also inspires the confidence that she will survive the fire and live to see the day when it marks an epoch in the city's development.

A SAMPLE OF THE KIND OF THING GOING ON IN THE CITY HALL.

Backed by his "power to act" ring in the city council, Mayor Short has unceremoniously and without a scintilla of evidence, other than his own say so, summarily "fired" the most capable and most fearless official in the city's service, Auditor Richardson.

The excuse for the auditor's dismissal is so lame that it would require great credulity to believe that it is the real reason. Taking advantage of the fact that a shortage, which probably amounts to five hundred dollars, has been found in the cash of the telephone department, the mayor alleges that the auditor is not a safe man with whom to trust the auditing of the city's books. When it is taken into consideration that the books, as presented to the auditor, balanced, and that it is explicitly the duty of the telephone department to see to it that there are not too many outstanding accounts (without which the shortage could have occurred), the shallowness of the reason urged for the auditor's dismissal is apparent. Accepting the mayor's interpretation, the auditor would have to constitute himself a detective agency to cover every civic official and find out how much money he spent.

The auditor whom the mayor has so summarily separated from the city's service is the same auditor who has all along been protesting against the methods of high finance under which the city has been driven into its present condition with its 16-mill rate. Those of the council who voted for his dismissal were a year ago supporting the McInnis' deal and every other malodorous transaction against which the auditor protested, and undoubtedly continue to bear him a grudge for the stand he took at that time.

For the mayor to attempt to saddle the responsibility for this financial situation upon the auditor, who protested, and to dismiss the auditor through the votes of the aldermen who promoted this method of finance, is a sample of the kind of thing that is going on in the city hall at the present time.

THE TAX RATE OF SIXTEEN MILLS.

The tax rate of 16 mills is the complete answer as to the efficiency of the "business administration" which has been installed in Edmonton this year and the capacity of the administration of last year of which this year's administration is the legitimate successor.

In the analysis, the test of administration is to be found in the balance sheet. If the cost is too high, that is where it will show.

Mayor Short's attempt to load the responsibility for the high tax rate on Alderman East is absurd. Alderman East never was in harmony either with this administration or the last. He has strenuously and at all times opposed the methods by which the tax rate has been put up to where it stands now. The aldermen who are now supporting Mayor Short were the government and majority in last year's council. Mayor Short was the nominee of the retiring mayor and supported by the council majority which stood by him in all the transactions which have led up to the present situation.

THE FARMER COMMENCING TO COME INTO HIS OWN.

Crop reports from every responsible authority continue to predict a bumper crop for the western half of the prairies with a fair average crop in the older districts along the eastern edge. Cutting will be earlier in most districts than for years and the danger from frost is practically nil. Figures to show the aggregate value of the crop have been compiled by several ambitious statisticians, but all agree that the value is more or less problematical. Nevertheless, the value to the country of this year's crop will reach tremendous proportions. Quite possible the aggregate will reach three hundred million dollars from grain alone, with another hundred million or so for animal products.

One of the features which the business men on their trip through the country have remarked upon is the fact that the cash system of business is now more generally in vogue in the country districts than ever before. This means that by the adoption of mixed farming methods the farmers have a constant revenue and are not so much dependent upon the element of chance.

Whatever effect the much-talked-of financial stringency may have had upon the speculative interests in the city, it is quite certain that the farming business as a whole is not going to suffer. With cash the farmer is in a position to harvest, and with the biggest crop in the country's history coming on, the farmer is coming into his own.

TODAY WE CELEBRATE

TRANSFIGURATION FESTIVAL TO BE CELEBRATED TODAY

Throughout the Christian world there will be observances today of the festival of the Transfiguration of the 19 great feasts which come next after Easter in dignity. It was instituted by Pope Callixtus III, in the fifteenth century, and commemorates the visit of Jesus to "an high mountain apart," where Jesus, Peter, John and James witnessed the Transfiguration, when "His face was altered and shone as the sun, and His garments became as white as snow."

Nowhere is the Transfiguration more fittingly observed than on Mount Hermon and Mount Tabor, where a few of the faithful gather annually in the hope of seeing their Lord, and often go away firm in the belief that such a vision has been vouchsafed to them. Tradition attributes to both Hermon and Tabor, in Syria, the glory of having been the mountain chosen by Jesus for the Transfiguration, and eastern Christians still ascribe over this point. Western scholarship favors Mount Hermon, the mountain of Jebel esh Sheikh, since Caesarea Philippi, to which Jesus and His disciples descended, is at its base, while Tabor is 50 miles away.

The modern tourist, going down to Damascus on the railway from Beirut, may see from the car window Hermon's snow clad heights. Few western Christians have the Syrian custom to visit the mountain on the festival of the Transfiguration, although the trip can now be made largely by rail, and without a tenth part of the hardships that fell to Mark Twain and his fellow "honest" Americans. During their summer journey overland through Palestine. It was on that hazardous trip that the first of the Transfiguration, and his comrades voted to leave him to the tender mercies of the Moslems of a Syrian village—all but Mark Twain, the profane pagan, who was "d-d if he would do it," and stayed with the weak man until he was well enough to travel.

BOLIVIA'S INDEPENDENCE DAY.

Today is Independence day in Bolivia, the first republic in South America. A terra incognita, even to those globe trotters who claim to know their South America. The highest country in the world, and until recent years, the most remote of quasi-civilized nations, has already been penetrated by railroads, and will soon be traversed by a transcontinental line extending from Lima on the Pacific to Buenos Ayres on the Atlantic. The principal part of Bolivia is a vast plateau, at an average altitude of 15,000 feet above sea level. Lake Titicaca, the highest navigable body of water in the world, has a level of about 10,000 feet. Bolivia's population is nine-tenths aboriginal, and the various tribes range from "the meekest and most servile people in the world" to the hardest and most warlike. The latter are a stalwart race, as may be judged from the fact that in Sucre, the de lure capital, there are many grand plazas, which were carried 600 miles, and over vast mountain ranges, by these human burden carriers. The local piano mover who is inclined to complain of his hard lot should be thankful that he was not born in Bolivia. Bolivia became independent on August 6, 1825, and the country was named in honor of Simon Bolivar, the liberator, while the capital, Sucre, was given the name of his principal lieutenant. The province of Santa Cruz, which was the richest and richest in nitrate, was lost to Bolivia in 1881, as a result of the unfortunate war with Chile.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

FRANK I., SENIOR OF THE FAMOUS COBBS, 44 TODAY

Somewhere between pages 14 and 170 of the History of America—although the event is not recorded in that volume—a man by the name of Cobb left his native land and emigrated to the United States. And his boys and they in turn begat other sons, until the Cobbs waxed great and powerful in the land. Which brings us down to the present generation of Cobbs: including that illustrious Tryon, Irving and Frank. Tryon is the youngest, and most will say, the greatest of the Cobbs. But today is his birthday party. Next in order of age comes Irving. Next, Frank, the plump humorist and philosopher from Padua. He who has taught over 100 years his face was as red as a rose, or as it would put it, "the inside of a blonde cow." It doesn't need to be told that he is funny; but he will never realize just how funny that obese author can be until he has seen him clad in flannel pants and abbreviated shirt, with legs bare, and armed with what, in our younger days, we called a home-armor, ensuring the role of Cupid. But this isn't Irving Cobb's party, either.

Senior of the distinguished Cobbs is Frank Irving, editor of the New York World, and this is his birthday party, since he was born in Shawnee county, Kan., 44 years ago today. Cobb, during his nine years as editor-in-chief of the great journal, established by Joseph Pulitzer, has won a place among the foremost editorial writers of the century. His first newspaper experience was in the first paper, the New York World, and he soon moved on to the New York Herald, and then to the New York Tribune. His next move was to Detroit, where

STRIKE BREAKERS TO BE EMPLOYED ON BULWARK DOCKS

Railroads Withdraw All Offers to Men Who Are Out at the Ore Docks

I.W.W. SENDS AGITATORS TO ROUSE TWO HARBORS

Attempt to Be Made to Call Out All Other Dock Laborers—Meantime Ore Boats Lie Idle Awaiting Loads.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 7.—Six hundred striking ore men stood about the Mesaba docks this morning, on guard about the waterfront, conversing in their several native languages with industrial workers of the West, and as the organizers expressed it, "forming new demands."

Meanwhile, many ore carriers awaited loads. The ore companies, hitherto willing to concede demands involving better working conditions, have rescinded all offers and have issued a statement saying that the strikers "have no agreement made early in the season and that fully 80 per cent of the men are willing to work, that the result of the I.W.W. agitation, and not of their own desire to quit."

The I.W.W. will send agitators to two harbors today to spread the strike. The workers there had called for ore boats and it is believed that they also will go out.

The strikers here will formally present their demands to the Mesaba officials today.

It positively was stated today that the ore boats will employ strike breakers. The officials said that the company will give any of the strikers an opportunity to return to work and will give them protection against those remaining out, or their sympathizers.

Notice of Withdrawal.

Notice was yesterday posted by the Great Northern withdrawing all concessions previously made. The 15 cent increase is rescinded, together with other demands that the men have agreed to. Some of the men are despondent and openly hold little respect for the situation now confronting them on the ground that had it not been for his extortions they would have returned to work at the increase offered.

A passenger coach, said to be loaded with strike breakers, was taken on the dock last night under an armed guard. All deputies are being hoisted and housed by the company.

To Spread Strike.

Today the I.W.W. will attempt to call out all other dock workers at the head of the lakes in sympathy with the ore dock strikers. Posters were put up all over the water front last night calling for a general strike.

W. A. Macdonald, president of the Duluth, Mesaba and northern said: "We have 80 per cent of our men out to continue work now, being fully satisfied with their wages and the conditions on our docks, but have been intimidated by a few strikers who have come to us only recently with the purpose of causing trouble."

"We expect to begin shipments of ore again very shortly, with the aid of our loyal employees and to do everything in our power to prevent the loss of earnings to many thousands of honest men who are being deprived of the means of subsistence by the work of a few strangers who have no real interest in their welfare and who are seeking here as elsewhere to cause sorrow and all the suffering incident to a strike that never had any right to be called."

Superior, Wis., Aug. 7.—Anticipation of an outbreak among superior strikers at the Great Northern dock last night, caused its special patrol force from 10 to 60 men. All heavily armed and the docks are being patrolled 24 hours a day.

A mass meeting of all Superior strikers was held last night. P. H. Little, I.W.W. representative, conducted the situation and confidence of the men. A general strike proclamation was read by Mr. Little but no action was taken due to the absence of a number of strikers.

Mr. Little said he hoped eventually to call a great strike which would affect all sailors on the Great Lakes and workers on coal docks, ore docks and in the mills. Talks were also made last night by Swedish, Polish and Finnish speakers. The men decided to hold daily meetings at 2 o'clock in the afternoon instead of 10 o'clock in the morning.

WON BURMA FOR BRITISH EMPIRE

Sir Henry Prendergast Dies—Wonderful Story Regarding King Theoba

London, Aug. 6.—Sir Henry Prendergast, V. C., the man who won Burma for the British empire, has just died at his home at Richmond in his 79th year.

His great achievement came in 1885 when he annexed Burma, a country larger than France, to the British empire and dethroned the king of the Burmese.

It is beyond doubt that in one day King Theoba caused 70 or 80 millions of the royal family to be massacred, said Sir Henry once, "but then this was strictly in accordance with the traditions of his position."

HUDSON BAY RAILROAD TO BE COMPLETED NEXT YEAR

By December, 1914, it is Expected that Construction Will Be Completed.

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—The expectation now entertained is that the Hudson Bay railway will be completed by December, 1914. The work is being pushed ahead with great vigor and the development of the terminal facilities at Nelson are being driven ahead so fast that the resources of the new port will assist materially in finishing the northern portion of the railway.

On July 23rd, the contractors had reached Gossom Lake narrows, at mile 10 with the steel and it is hoped to reach mile 60 by August 25th. It looks as if 400 miles of grading will be completed this fall. There are 1,200 men on the work, and the only difficulty at present is the short supply of ties.

Just before Mr. Cochrane set out on his journey over the route to Hudson Bay, he had the contract for the second section, 68 miles from Thicket Point to Split Lake Junction, the amount involved being $1,000,000. More recently the final section of 165 miles has been let for $3,700,000. The time for the completion of these two sections is December 1, 1914.

The men working at the terminals now number 180, and it is estimated that by autumn 250 will be employed. Five steamers were chartered this summer to carry in supplies, and the following fleet has been bought for the following season: Seagoing tug, $12,000; steamboat, $10,000; tug, $10,000; steel low barge and two steel sectional, $29,000.

The Polson iron company limited, of Toronto, is installing a $270,000 unit, iron dredger, one of the most complete ever built in Canada. The same company is also at work on a $32,000 stern wheel tug.

STRATHCONA TELLS HOW TO LIVE LONG

Just Go Steadily on With Work One is Doing and Not Be in a Hurry.

London, Aug. 7.—Lord Strathcona was found on his 63rd birthday sitting at his desk, where he worked until 4 o'clock this last August day. He was not driven to work, he declared, by the reason that induced most people of his age.

The Canadian High Commissioner surprised the representative of the Daily Mail by inquiring how he would observe his century on his years hence, by answering that he would do so by keeping at work as usual.

"I never take any pleasure out of it," he said. "I have a little more work than usual. The reply is characteristic of the man. The high commissioner sat surrounded by papers. There were few signs of his great age. His dark eyes looked as if they were those of a man of 50."

"I have been connected with the Dominion of Canada for three-quarters of a century," he said. "It has indeed become a very great country, but nothing in what I have done has been done in the next quarter of a century. I believe it will have a population exceeding that of the United Kingdom and perhaps more. It has everything required to make a great nation. Nevertheless, I am content with the work I have done and I shall always remain indissolubly allied to the mother country. Canada is proud of its connection with the empire."

In answer to the question how to live to his age, Lord Strathcona replied: "By and looking forward to it, but going steadily on with work that one is doing, being patient and not in a hurry."

SCANDAL AGAIN IS UP IN COMMONS

Kier Hardie With Brutal Directness Asks Why Names Are Suppressed.

London, Aug. 7.—Kier Hardie, the labor member, with brutal directness said yesterday in the house of commons that the names of cabinet ministers were being bandied about in connection with the unsavory Queen's divorce case, and that the names of which are now at issue to have been suppressed by the home office.

Mr. McKenna, the home secretary, was not present, but the under-secretary of state for the home department, Ellis J. Griffiths, faced the criticism from the labor and radical members while Lord Robert Cecil wanted to find out why the woman was not charged with being a procuress when letters had been found in her flat from certain prominent men.

Mr. Kier Hardie asked: "Don't you think the publication of the names of men who tempted women by large sums of money would not be deterrent to this sort of vice?" and again: "Are you aware that certain very prominent men, including those of the cabinet are mentioned in the rumors about this?"

Mr. Griffiths said he was not aware that any such names had been mentioned in the case, but if there were men guilty of "any offence" they would be prosecuted although the law now stands, none could be proceeded against.

THE CITY OF ROSES.

Isphahan, Persia, is known as the "city of roses," but a traveler says that the streets "are only a few feet wide, and the walls, without a single window or opening to be seen—merely here and there a low, narrow doorway, always imperiously closed. The ground is thickly carpeted with dust; the streets are rarely straight, and never have they any name. The sense of ruin is everywhere. Here a wall is falling down; there a palace is in ruins; a little further on a deserted mosque is skirted. Such is Isphahan, when from having at one time a population of 600,000 is now reduced to about 100,000 inhabitants.

JILTED LORD BECAUSE HE COULDN'T TROT.

Miss Betty Hamilton, the pretty daughter of a wealthy English planter of Guatemala, who recently arrived in New York from England, is said to have been jilted by a man to whom she had been engaged before she left America because he could not trot. It sounds like a "hot weather" story, but in these days when to some Betties the most important question when choosing a husband is not "Is he good?" but "Can he dance?" It might just be that the yarn is correct. Betty should have tried her lord out on the Flat Walk which is much newer than the turkey. He might have been perfection in that. It will make her put green with envy if she should see him fish-walking with a rival, the contrary of admiring eyes knowing all the time that she might have been in the spotlight if she had only had a little foresight.

Increased Membership in Country Club Makes It Necessary.

The annual meeting of the Edmonton Country club was held last night in McMane's hall. It was decided that as the membership of the club had greatly increased, the post of secretary would require the entire services of one man, and that he should be a remunerative one. High tributes were paid to the excellent work done by Mr. Palmer who has given the club his entire attention for two years.

The following were elected upon the board of governors: Messrs. W. B. Creighton, F. B. Sommerville, F. C. Jamieson, Dr. G. W. Gobbett, elected for three years. Messrs. J. H. Morris, J. E. Wallbridge, E. G. Palmer, C. H. Simpson, elected for two years. Messrs. H. M. Martin, G. R. P. Kirkpatrick, H. H. Helliwell, G. W. Swaisland, elected for one year.

Common Sense—Frame This

Art studies should come after marriage, in the estimation of Mrs. Kate Upson Clark, women's editor of Leslie's Weekly, and prominent author and suffragist. Said she the other day:

"Marriage should come first of all in every well-balanced woman's life. Art and literature, then, wait. And a girl who waits for a comfortable home and loving ones about her, will never suffer the privations, the awful discouragements and heartbreak that many of our ambitious young college girls now go through in the western cities."

In the case of a young friend who recently became despondent in Paris and tried to commit suicide because she had failed, Mrs. Clark said: "Many of our so-called progressive women, 'the new women,' advise our girls to avoid lovers, to scorn matrimony, to devote themselves to art and art alone. That help concentration, I admit. But, on the other hand, if the woman fails or runs out of money, or suffers despondency through loneliness and starvation and successive failures, she suffers agonies."

"Also, I believe, that no woman really knows all about life, or has a well-balanced life, until she is married, knows what love is, and acquires the path of a strong woman through home surroundings. It takes time to succeed in art. It takes financial backing. It takes love to bring inspiration."

"That's why I want to urge all young women to aspire to the well-balanced, commonplace life before they set their hearts on some star—such as literary or artistic success."

TABLOID MUSICAL
FARCE AT EMPIRE

Twenty People Are in Feature, and the Rest of the Bill is Fine.

An attractive vaudeville bill headed by Jesse L. Lasky with a tabloid musical farce bearing the significant title of "The Little Parisienne" will point the way to the Empire theatre the first three days of next week, starting with a musical comedy. The company presenting this excellent bill three comedy acts to music numbers nearly 70 people, 12 of whom form a chorus of eight girls and four young men who sing and otherwise deport themselves on the stage with that liveliness which was inseparable to vaudeville exhortation, and which carry far to the success of the production.

A daintily dressed doppel, Valerie Seize, is the prima donna of the troupe, whose animated singing and graceful dancing won marked tokens of approval, particularly noted in her song, "La Vie Parisienne," and in a beautiful duet with Jack Clark, "You're the Sort of Guy That I Could Love."

Travelers are presented of "Bunty Pulls the Strings" in exaggerated comic costumes and some genuine enlivening the action. The outcome in this number is exceedingly funny.

Two other big acts on this extraordinary bill, which should prove a delight to visitors to the musical exhibition.

The call to the twenty-ninth annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada has been issued. Taking place, as the convention does this year, in the largest city of the Dominion, there is every prospect that last year's record attendance of over 250 delegates at Guelph will be exceeded.

Each succeeding year has witnessed the steady growth of the congress, numerically and financially. This has been accomplished in spite of obstacles the peculiarities of which have been little understood, and therefore not fully appreciated by the average trades unionist; although these might well be pardoned, seeing that it has taken a number of years to render the executive heads of the international movement sufficiently familiar with the work, status and objects of the congress; but particularly the strains to induce them to place their organizations in proper relationship to it.

This period, however, is now past; and the international trades union movement of the North American continent recognizes for industrial purposes their respective international executive for legislative purposes, part of the boundary line, the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, and to the south the American Federation of Labor, these two bodies issuing in their respective jurisdictions charters to the provincial and state federations of labor to carry on local legislation in the workers' interests.—V. R. Trotter, organizer Trades and Labor Congress.

Gas Pringle, associated with Arthur W. Putnam in "The Voice," Winnipeg, accompanied by Mrs. Pringle, is a visitor on the coast this week. Mr. Pringle is one time "pringle" in New Westminster, along with C. Stuart Campbell and other well-known old-time Pacific coast players has not been away for many years. Mr. and Mrs. Pringle went over to Victoria on Wednesday, will return tomorrow and will leave for home Sunday. What Mr. Pringle had to say of Vancouver in general and the Empire in particular can scarcely be used in these columns, as the Progress club would purloin it for publicity literature.

A DIALECT FAIRY

(Toronto News)
Little Peerie Dinglechimer
Is a naughtily fay,
Dancing through the yellow stubble,
Hiding in the hay,
When the children sleep on thistles,
Brier thorns or such,
Peerie holds his sides, and gaily
Laughs in double Dutch.

"Ash," he murmurs, "Sooth a fumes! See dem bop bop,
Now dey haf to get a needles
For to take dem out.
Und der madders will be saying,
"Vy you hold shift!
So? You leave your shoes an' stockings
On de vinder sill!"

Peerie never has a thistle
In his eye for foot,
Wooden shoes, and wooden stockings
Cover them so neat,
And he takes his shoes for sailing
In the morning dew,
Till the sweetest, dearest pleasure
Underneath the blue.

So he paddles down the meadows,
Gathering the dew,
Placing them there barefoot laddies
Dance in summer morn,
Then he laughs—"Wiltch Dutty,
When the task is done,
And he watches from the tree-tops
For a heap of fun.

"Dere dey," he whispers softly
In his ear for foot,
"Gretchen, Hedie, Tom und Willie,
Jane und Rosalie!
See dem skippe in der pasture
Vere de cattle goes.
Ach, mine goodness, gracious
grodder!
Tittles in der toes!"

HERO OF A SONG
HERE NEXT WEEK

Famous Billy Clifford Will Be Attraction at the Empire the Last Half.

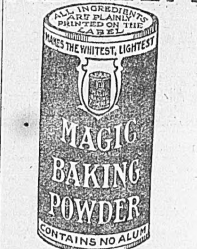

You've heard the "Billy" song—"For when I walk, I always walk with Billy," cause Billy knows just where to walk; and when I talk I always talk with Billy, cause Billy knows just how to talk; and when I sleep I always dream of Billy, cause Billy knows just how to dream. "Well, that song is dedicated to Billy Clifford, who appears at the Empire theatre on August 14, 15 and 16, a musical satire, "Believe Me." The song, famous the country over and particularly among B.C., was written by Joe Goodwin, the music by Kende and Paley, and on the cover piece appears the name picture of Billy Clifford which has been scored on the bill boards the past week.

When Clifford first starred in a musical comedy he's a headliner one of the big ones in vaudeville. He's said to be as funny as he can be, and his company promises to keep the audience laughing from the beginning to end. He can sing some, too.

The twenty-first annual convention of the I. O. O. F. S. E. closed at Seattle on Sunday morning last, after a week of busy sessions. The ratification of a tentative agreement with the American Federation of Musicians was unanimously adopted. A delegation from the Theatre Managers' Association was present at the convention, with a view to reaching a mutual understanding as between the two organizations, and with this in view joint committees were named to further the project. of the convention. Chas. C. Shay was re-elected president for the ensuing two years, while Les M. Hart was returned to the office of secretary-treasurer by a narrow margin. "The Northwest district," said President Veleber, "is in the best condition of any of the nine districts at present covering Canada and the United States. The membership is increasing. The work of organization will be further augmented by the fact that in future conventions will only be held bi-annually instead of every year, and the money will be used to place organizers in the field: the sum of $10,000 having already been appropriated for that purpose. The present membership of 15,000, if properly organized, should reach the 20,000 or 25,000 mark before the next convention."

Heinrichs Wins Sixth Successive Ball Game

Calgary Admins One Terrible Defeat to Edmonton in Afternoon
But Birds Come Back in the Evening With a Score of Eight to Two.

Calgary, Aug. 7.—It remained for Heinichs to finally humble the triumphant Bronks. He did it in the evening game of yesterday's double header the score being 8 to 2. Manager Richmond intended to stop the Bronks in the afternoon when he put Jack Clayton on the mound, but Jack got a bad start and didn't improve as the game progressed, the score at the end of the sixth inning when the game was called being 12 to 1.

In the afternoon Dickenson pitched the first good game since joining the Bronks. He let his former team mates down with three hits, one of which was a two bagger which immediately followed a walk and resulted in the visitors scoring their only tally. In the evening Dave Skeels tried to come back as a pitcher, but his former team mates found him with good effect in two fast innings and scored their eighth run.

The Feature.
The feature of the game was the lone distance hitting of the Bronks. Five home runs were made during the day, three in the afternoon and two in the evening. The evening pair being the only scores which the locals made.

Since Mike Dickenson had joined the Bronks he has twice been defeated by his former team mates, the Eskimos, but yesterday afternoon he got revenge and got it in big chunks. During the sixth inning in which he performed yesterday he allowed only three hits and granted but two walks, and but for the fact that one of these hits followed upon the heels of one of the free transpositions he would have registered a shut out.

On the other hand the Bronks got to Clayton early in the game and never let up until they had breezed 12 runs across the pan, 11 hits being instrumental in the getting of these run counters.

An Up-hill Fight.
Clayton never had the reputation of being an up-hill fighter, and when the Bronks got five runs in the very first inning it took the heart out of the Edmonton twirler and what the Bronks did from then on would take several columns to tell about in detail. In three separate and distinct occasions the Bronks registered home runs off Clayton's delivery. Even Dickenson who is not usually such a heavy weight in the batter line copped a four base knock.

Holla Hits Hard.
In the first round Holla hit Skeels in two runs with a lousy single with two on, and then Skeels singled and James Flanagan followed with a home run which went over the left field fence and chased two runs in ahead of him.

Everything went smoothly along until the fourth when Dickenson posted one over the center field fence, but it happened that the bases were empty at the time. In the next inning Babe Holla connected for a circuit drive after two men were out which brought the Calgary score up to seven.

In the sixth James Flanagan got his second safe swat. Ray Hesse ran him out and advanced to second on Jake Strick's safe blow into short center, and Larry Piper drove him home with a nice single which he tried to stretch into a two bagger, and was caught in the act.

The seventh was another happy round for the local boys when every man on the team took a turn, six of them connecting safely and four scoring.

OLD-FASHIONED SLUGGING MAKES SAINTS DANGEROUS IN BIG MINOR LEAGUE.

Terrific hitting by Hemphill, Hinman, Robb and Riegert and the tight defense of the saucy infield has kept the St. Paul team of the American Association leading for a place at the top of the race in the big, powerful minor league.

The pitching staff isn't very good, although "Dixie" Walker, the old Washington heaver, has shown flashes of sensational hurling, while Riegert and the veteran Larry have pitched some good games.

But the one big reason for the Saints occupying third place in one of the hottest races ever staged in the A. A. has been the terrific hitting of the outfield and the clever defensive play-

EDMONTON WILL HAVE STRONG TEAM AT CALEDONIAN SPORTS

Will Choose Track Team For Alberta

On Saturday night in Calgary there will probably be a meeting of the Alberta amateur athletic association for the purpose of discussing the question of sending a team of athletes to represent the province at the Dominion championship sports in Vancouver.

Entirely aside from the three or four men that the police intend sending to Vancouver it is probable that the provincial association will send a track team.

No doubt the results at the Caledonian sports in Calgary on Saturday will to a great extent decide the selection of such a team. As there is a good representation from Edmonton athletes from the north will in all probability be in a majority on the lineup.

Y.M.C.A. Will Send Bunch of Five Sprinters and Jumpers to Calgary to Compete at Much Advertised Scotch Sports There—Pipers Band to Compete.

Edmonton will be well represented at the Caledonian sports in Calgary on Saturday. Five or maybe six men will be in the half mile, mile and two mile races from the Edmonton Y.M.C.A. will go south and compete in all open events except the weights.

Sheppard the all-round champion and maker of several provincial records and one Dominion record will lead the squad. He will run in the 100 yard dash, 220 yards, 440 yards, hop-step and jump, and relay and possibly one or two other events.

Haliburton the youth who tied with Sheppard in the provincial championship 100 yard dash will be in the 100 yard dash and long jump.

Pierce, Logan and Pocock are the three other men who it is expected will go. Logan and Pocock will be in the half mile, mile and two mile races. Pierce will be in the 100 yard dash and long jump.

In addition to the track team the Pipers' band is going to compete in the band tournament for the championship of Western Canada.

SAM SAVAGE WILL DROP OUT OF PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL

Calgary Magnate Has Lost All the Money He Feels Like Losing in Supporting the Great National Pastime in Western Canada.

Calgary, Aug. 7.—"I can't stand the pressure. I am going to drop out of baseball the first opportunity I get. The franchise will be put up for sale, and the biggest bidder can have it."

These were the words of Sam Savage, president of the Calgary Baseball club, and the man who made professional baseball in Calgary possible for a number of years. His decision comes following the most disastrous season that pro. baseball has ever gone through in this city. The Calgary club has dropped over $5,000 so far this season, and as the crowd have been getting any better, even since the new baseball park was opened, he was going to finance the Calgary

President Savage has decided that he has gone just as far as he could afford, and if anyone wishes to take up the job, where he has left off, they are welcome to tackle it.

Denise Stories.
When asked about the story which started in Regina to the effect that he had asked the league for money with which to continue the season, Mr. Savage denied it emphatically. He said that he knew that it would be foolish to ask the league for funds, and that he did intend to drop out of baseball.

A story was circulated yesterday to the effect that Frank Grey, of Edmonton, but the origin of this story is somewhat of a myth. An Edmonton man did make a tentative offer for the franchise, but the man was not the owner of the Edmonton franchise. Who it was, Mr. Savage was unwilling to state.

However, there is a possibility that Calgary may see no more professional baseball here this season. It is understood that Edmonton would like to get the remainder of the schedule games which Calgary is supposed to play, and would provide the gate guarantee, thus relieving the local promoters of the responsibility of digging down for more money. Edmonton has been drawing very good crowds all season.

ALBERT AGAIN LOSES CRICKET GAME TO TOBA

Two Manitoba Teams Winners From Both Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—Yesterday's games in the inter-provincial cricket tournament were marked by the downfall of the Saskatchewan and Alberta aggregations before the two Manitoba eleven, low scoring featuring the play. The bowling of all the teams combined was much superior to the batting.

Manitoba A team after being disposed of for 118, were somewhat disappointed at the result, but the visitors were not settled to the bowling of Flett, who captured five wickets for 31 runs, and was mainly instrumental for the low total of 102 completed by the westerners.

Pelton Smith 36 and the good all round play of Scar, with 29 and 3 wickets for 31, were numbered among the more noteworthy incidents of the day.

Hartley's 27, Vidal's 23, and Gardner's 22, raised the batting of the Saskatchewan players before the second innings. Manitoba followed on for a second knock, and amassed 77 for the loss of four wickets, when time was out.

Davis scoring 32 of that total and Dr. Smith 33. Vidal had his day out with the ball, taking 5 wickets for 55 runs.

Manitoba B team could do but little with the bowling of Napper and Smith, who were dismissed for the small total of 122. Napper took six wickets for 75, and Murdoch 3 and 16, both for 20 minutes.

The performance of the two teams was the display of fireworks given by Lanigan, who scored 22, and second hand man with 31. Alberta replied with the modest score of 44, and the visitors were completely destroyed by lightning, but no loss of lives occurred.

Every cricket in the city was flooded with rain and at one time two feet of water was running in the main street. Two railroad bridges were carried away.

VICTORIA, Aug. 7.—In an exhibition basketball game played yesterday at the Victoria arena, the Victoria team defeated the Vancouver team by a score of 14 to 8.

NOTICE

I wish to inform the public of the route to take to the Exhibition ground during fair week.

The north route will be by the way of Fraser, Main, Kingston or Adelaide and then to Alexandra Boulevard and then by the way of Alexandra Boulevard to the fair grounds. The south route will be by the way of Jasper Avenue east to Stuart street, north on Stuart street across railway tracks to Willow Avenue, along Willow Avenue to Exhibition gate.

Agnes Stewart will be paid to south exhibition gate. Should weather set in, I strongly advise traffic to take the northern route as they will have pavement all the way. Should the weather continue fine, which we hope it will, the south route will be kept in good condition.

INTERCOLLEGIATE FOOTBALL SEASON OPENING

Schedules Have Been Completed and Teams Are Starting Arduous Training Routine—More Than a Thousand Games Will Be Played This Fall.

New York, Aug. 8.—Although the intercollegiate football season is still two months away, the shadow of the gridiron game is already edging into the realms of sport. The schedule makers have completed their tasks, and the coaches are now busy with the gathering of candidates. The first week of September will witness initial practices at a number of eastern and western colleges, and before October is reached games will have been won and lost on many a varsity football field. Judged from present indications, the coming season should produce football in both quality and quantity such as no previous autumn has witnessed. Few changes have been made in the playing rules, and both coaches and players will require but little time in which to familiarize themselves with the code alterations. More than 1,000 games are scheduled among the college elevens, and if the high school and preparatory academy contests are included, the 1913 games will total in excess of 3,000.

The college play opens with a few scattering games on September 20, and the contests multiply rapidly on succeeding Saturdays until the climax is reached on November 22. Thanksgiving day games are still popular in certain sections of the country, but with the exception of the army-navy game, gridiron activity will cease with the holiday contests. A number of inter-sectional games will add interest to the short football season. For Michigan, Syracuse, Cornell, Notre Dame, Carleton, Vanderbilt and Pennsylvania are all scheduled for long trips and games in hostile "varsity" territory. The new game of importance—the Harvard-Cornell match at Cambridge—is shown among the leading contests of the fall, but the usual clashes between the leading elevens of the country have just none of their charm, and there is certain to be capacity attendance at a number of the games.

First Real Test.
The first real test games will come early in October, for on Saturday, October 4, Harvard meets Lafayette, which defeated the Quakers last autumn. A week later the Carleton Indians will try the mettle of Dr. Sharp's Cornell team, while Pennsylvania will try to wipe out the memory of Swarthmore's victory in 1912. Harvard meets Williams, and Yale faces Lafayette on the same day. Saturday, October 18, will find the following elevens lined up: Amherst v. Trinity, Colgate v. Army, Dartmouth v. Williams, Lafayette v. Swarthmore, Syracuse v. Princeton, and Pennsylvania v. Brown. On October 25 Princeton plays Dartmouth, Michigan meets Vanderbilt, Pennsylvania tackles Carleton, and Minnesota has Iowa as opponents.

In November the month of November brings the real clashes of the gridiron year. On the first day of the month Notre Dame will play at West Point, Cornell at Harvard, Syracuse at Michigan, Pennsylvania state at Pennsylvania, Virginia at Vanderbilt, Wisconsin at Minnesota, and Colgate at Yale. Saturday, Nov. 2, will see the following big games: Cornell v. Michigan, Dartmouth v. Pennsylvania, Harvard v. Princeton, Pennsylvania state v. Notre Dame, Tennessee v. Vanderbilt, Yale v. Brown, and Chicago v. Northwestern. A week later Yale plays Princeton, Dartmouth faces Carleton, Cornell opposes Lafayette, Brown is at Harvard, Pennsylvania at Michigan, Chicago at Minnesota, and Pennsylvania state will try out the Navy eleven.

The big game of Saturday, Nov. 22, is the Harvard-Yale match at Cambridge. Other contests of importance include Syracuse v. Carleton, Lehigh v. Lafayette, Michigan v. Illinois, Wisconsin v. Chicago, Minnesota v. Kansas, Wesleyan v. Trinity, Nebraska v. Iowa, and Tulane v. Louisiana. Thanksgiving day games include the annual Pennsylvania-Cornell clash, with Carleton v. Brown, Vanderbilt v. Southern University, Texas v. Notre Dame, Washington State v. Washington, and Oregon v. Montana. Following football thrills in other parts of the country. On Saturday, Nov. 29, the U. S. Naval and Military Academy teams will meet, and with this game the season sound for the gridiron warriors of 1914.

'AMERICAN HENLEY' RECALLS HISTORY OF ROWING GAME
(By "Gray.")

The regatta of the National Association of Amateur Rowers, to be held on the Charles river at Boston today, recalls the fact that this year may be said to mark the centenary of rowing as a 'game' of the sport.

It was in 1813 that Westminster school, in England, founded the Water Leagues and organized the crew for the six-oared Py. For three years this boat held the field, and its races were against time. In 1816 Eton had a six-oared boat, and its races were against time. In 1818 Eton had a six-oared boat, and its races were against time. In 1818 Eton had a six-oared boat, and its races were against time.

than to a messenger boy. On August 1, 1714, Doggett's Coat and Badge was first raced for. The prize, a red coat with a large silver badge, was offered by Thomas Doggett, the comedian, and competition was confined to young watermen who were not to have exceeded the time of their apprenticeship by more than a year.

The boat-racing tradition in America began about a century ago, although in 1811 there was a four-oared barge race between New York and Long Island. America's first amateur chess was organized in New York in 1884 by the Castle Garden Amateur Chess Club. Harvard and Yale first took up rowing in earnest 70 years ago. The National Association of Amateur Rowers was founded 40 years ago, in 1873, and its annual regatta was organized on lines similar to the Royal Henley of England, except that it is rowed on different courses each year.
